May the joy and the confidence of Easter be ours, both in our personal lives and in our life of obedience and discipleship in the world

Notes from St Margaret's

We begin April still in Lent but we are almost at the dramatic passion narrative of Holy Week.

Spring has arrived and the shops are full of Easter goodies. Let us take a moment to reflect on the significance of Easter.

The celebrations of Easter is crucial to our Christian worship as it is the heart of the Christian year. Easter illustrates the significant difference between merely observing dates in a calendar and using the celebrations to deepen faith.

Let's hope this Easter will be a new start for us all.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

Blessed be the name of Jesus who died to save us.
Blessed be Jesus,
who had compassion on us.
Blessed be Jesus,
who suffered loneliness, rejection and pain,
for our sakes.
Blessed be Jesus,
through whose cross I am forgiven,
Lord Jesus, deepen my understanding
Of your suffering and death.
