Come, Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit, come inflame us
With the life that makes us new.
Come with power and come with justice
With the love to make us true.
Holy Spirit, come and stir us
Rouse us from apathy.
Come with power and come with justice
Come and set our spirits free.

Notes from St Margaret's

It is a pity that we have already reached the sixth month and there is still rain and wind.

However, there are more colourful signs of better times - flowers, leaves, the grass to be cut and the sound of birdsong. It really does echo that famous musical number, June is bustin' out all over from Rogers and Hammerstein musical, Carousel.

It is only since I have commenced the school walk with Robyn and Martha that I am really appreciating the wonderful Tayport coastal views as well as healthy exercise.

The church year is now back to ordinary time but hopefully with renewed spiritual vigour.

However, looking at the sudden burst of weeds in our gardens, we are reminded of our need to continue to ask for God's support to eliminate those weeds that are caused through our daily pressures as well as the numerous temptations that cause us to stray from our spiritual journey towards God's eternal reward.

Best wishes

Margaret Gray
