God grant me the serenity to accept courage to change things I can,

and wisdom to know the difference

Notes from St Margaret's

This month, marks the poignant reminder of the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War hostilities. It is hard to imagine, how the assassination of the distant Archduke Franz Ferdinand would lead to Germany invading neutral Belgium. The consequence being that Britain declared war on Germany and that life would never be the same again.

Today, our lives, even during this our current spell of lovely weather are still unsettled and threatened. The only difference being that now, through modern technology, news, both locally and internationally, is relayed within seconds throughout the world.

However, as Christians, we must remain steadfast knowing that God remains present in the power of our faith, prayers and worship. We must all strive towards the eternal hope and peace of God's promised salvation and redemption for humanity.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray
