A Retreat

Lord, I want to be an island cut off by the tide,
Or a castle with a moat and drawbridge lifted high.

Lord, I want to shut myself away from the stress of daily life,
And spend some time in pastures green, far from the toil and strife

But, you call me to be open to all this day's demands
And leave what're the future holds entirely in your hands.

Notes from St Margaret's

We are now entering the seventh month and it is holiday season, a lot of people have just come back from a holiday while others are planning to go away during the next few months.

What is a holiday - a change from the daily routine, a chance to explore new places or simply a time to relax?

Schools in Scotland have closed and many parents are trying to find ways of keeping their children amused. Let's hope the warm weather continues and our local children can discover the joy of leisure.

I have discovered the joy of the scooter. I may not be as agile as my grand-daughter, Robyn, but it is fun!!

So, whether it is just the joy of eating outdoors, working longer hours in the garden or maybe visiting one of our local beauty spots, enjoy the creation that God has given us and come back to St Margaret's church revitalised and refreshed.

Best wishes,

Margaret Gray

When you go through something that changes your world completely, you can turn to the one thing that won't change, the Lord's love for you.
