Notes from St Margaret's

Belated Easter greetings to everybody. April comes from Aprilis, which means 'to open' and we can look forward to seeing new buds appearing and things starting to grow again after this particular long cold winter. The cry of the cuckoo is the signal that spring has come as well as the welcoming return of the swallow later in the month. Bees and butterflies begin to gather nectar and it is traditionally for us the time for a spring-clean and resume mowing.

We have just celebrated our happiest day of the year, Easter Sunday when Jesus rose from the dead and gave us all a new beginning. Are you ready to accept Jesus' call?

Best wishes

Margaret Gray

Notes from the Vestry

At the Vestry meeting held on Sunday 10 March, Rev Jim Thomson offered to take home communion to those requiring it.

Other matters discussed included the purchase of additional CDs for the hymn machine; our participation in the Fife Doors Open event on 8th September; the sanding and revarnishing of the hall floor in July and a review of our investments.

The co-opting of Gillian Mackin as a Vestry member was also agreed and we look forward to welcoming Gillian at the next Vestry meeting on 28th April.

Full minutes are displayed on the church notice board.
